This exceptional vintage Moroccan Rehamna features an abstract motif structure woven in a unique color story. Brick and open lozenge motifs are loosely arranged in stacked rows, resembling terraced houses in the Plains viewed from a distance. Knotted in a painterly palette of saturated red, pink, faded celadon, and black. A band of flat weave finishes the carpet on one end. Framed with bold sawtooth selvages, common in pieces from this tribe. 100% wool.
