This vintage Rehamna is woven in a moody palette of deep coral, bright pink, dark brown, celadon green/grey, lavender purple/grey, and charcoal. Male and female Berber symbols sprawl across the field, some contained within horizontal bands of color. Motifs include lozenges, branches, crosses, zig zag/snake, and chessboards. Wool pile and weft on a multicolor cotton warp. Note some transfer of natural dyes, which does not detract from the overall condition or character of the piece.
