A vintage Moroccan Beni Ouarain hanbel, which differs from the structure of double knotted higher pile Beni Ouarains with its low looped pile construction. The emphasis of this carpet is on texture rather than pattern..there are subtle light grey hints woven in the ivory field, with a band of natural undyed dark brown and grey/brown at one end. A touch of color is added in a small row of orange knots. A beautiful understated piece woven in 100% wool.
